Reflections 1990

*Eckerd College
4200 54th Avenue South
St. Petersburg, Florida 33711
(813) 864-8416*

Welcome to a new decade. We are witnessing the rebirth of time which, like the Phoenix, is born of its own ashes, rising to great heights only to die and be reincarnated again. Part of that cycle, a new beginning, is just beyond the horizon.

The 90s will offer new opportunities, and fulfill great promises, whether it be through the launching of a career, achieving academic goals, or by initiating new steps towards discovery and freedom. For others, we will witness the birth of ideas, perspectives, and emotions. The 90s will offer graduating Seniors a new beginning of their lives — the beginning of their careers and an end to torturous days of continual study. Then there are those who opt to study, and the 90s offers them only the best as they journey on towards graduate school.

In any case we must remember that we are a small part of a vast universe, swept up together in one continual cycle. From day to day the Sun follows a cycle from sunrise to sunset; and from birth to death we rise and are gently laid to rest. What has been diminished lives on through words, photographs and other reflections of our yesterdays.

The phoenix is represented throughout this book to illustrate the cycle of life at Eckerd College, and to help us reflect on our year, to say good bye to the 80s while looking towards the 90s and our future.

Welcome To The 1990's: The Birth Of A New Decade

Student Life

Autumn Term Helps Fresh-Ecks Orient To Life In College

Throughout Autumn Term freshmen from all over the world got acquainted with each other, and they had one thing in common: they were new to Eckerd College. Most of them weren't used to sharing a bathroom with sixteen people, or even living with another person. An objective of Autumn Term was to help them make the transition from home-life to communal living. New quests ranged from eating "Saga" to attempting to get to sleep before 4 a.m. Cooperation was the word throughout Autumn Term. Resident Advisors and Autumn Term activators tried to make the transition easier, and even the games at Funlympics emphasized cooperation between dormmates.

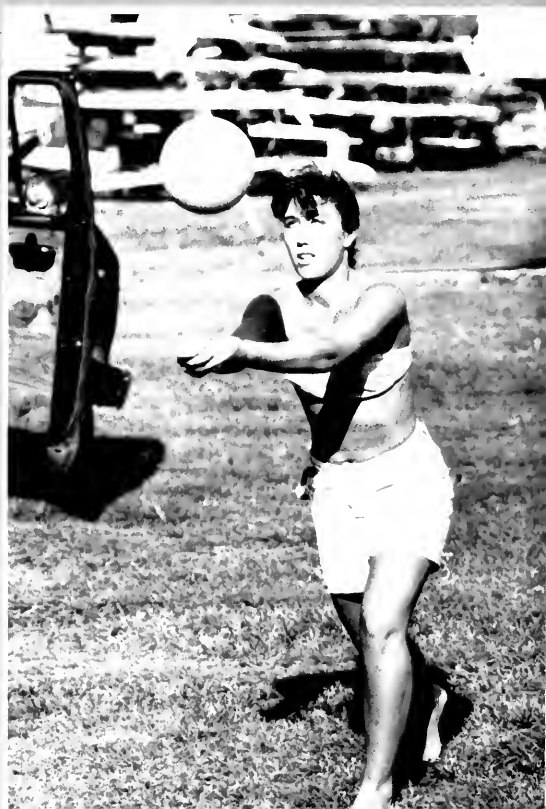

Krazy Kappa Carnival

Krazy Kappa Carnival was Eckerd's way of welcoming the upperclassmen back after a seemingly short summer, and it also helped the freshmen realize that, yes, there is life after Camp Eckerd. From volleyball to water bombardment competitions, each complex had its chance to show everyone what it's made of. During the day Krazy-Kappa was a good old American picnic, with sun, fun, food, and music, and that night, with music provided by Shamrock, students partied all through the night to start the year off with a bang.

Parents And Students Enjoy The Annual Kon-Tiki Events

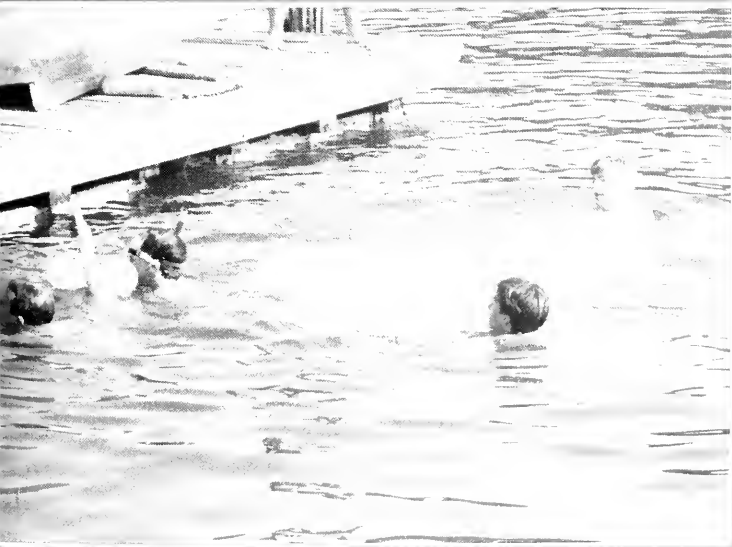

Kon-Tiki was held November 4, as part of the annual Parent's Weekend. The main event was the exciting and amusing raft race in Frenchman's Creek. The winning team manned the "AIDS Awareness Raft". Constructed by Delta Complex, this raft was made entirely of inflated condoms. The best-theme-award was presented to Dante House for its "Exxon Valdez."

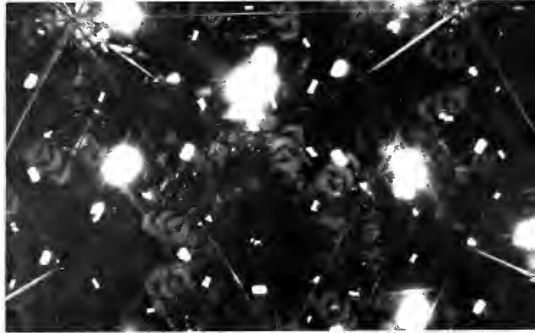

In addition to the raft race, parents and students had the opportunity to try out waterfront equipment. There was also two-on-two volleyball competition, as well as a variety of other sports activities. Refreshments and T-shirts were available, with all proceeds going to All-Childrens' Hospital.

Homelycoming '89

When people in Florida think of Homecoming, they think of pep rallies and tailgate parties and serious football competition. Well Eckerd may not be able to compete with UF's Gator Growl, but we have something that is unique and special to us... HOMELYCOMING!!

This year's theme was "Winter Wonderland." Office windows and bathroom mirrors all over campus were decorated with spray snow announcements that "Homelycoming '89" was upon us.

The big day began with the traditional float parade. Beecher, Scott, Blakely, Wilson and the Cheerleaders all gave their impressions of an Eckerd Christmas. Beecher, with their "Santa Pimp" float, came in first place, followed by the Cheerleaders and Wilson.

After the parade, football fans were treated to not one, but two exciting football games. The first was between the Alumni team and the intramural champs, the Nu West team.

Members of the Alumni team included such noteables as Housing Director Wayne Harwell, Recreation Coordinator Chris Roby and Basketball Coach Tom Ryan. After a Nu West victory, both teams settled back to relax and watch the second game of the day.

Unlike the sound of its name, the Powderpuff game was as rough and tumble as the guy's game. Both teams fought a tough battle and both left the field with their share of injuries.

Next came fun for all in the Queen Contest. After modeling for the judges and a brief question and answer session, Blakely's own Tom "Big Bombs" Bertoni and his escort, Sam Penetta, walked away with first place.

After all the excitement for the day, students danced the night away at the Dalton-Douglas semi-formal dance in Fox hall. All proceeds from the dance were donated to AIDS research.

Becky Kregling
Life is a strange journey through harsh and forbidding territory. No one gets out of here alive. The dangers are many, the rewards are few. Life is sarcastic and cruel. It plays havoc with the best of intentions and always sows the seeds of the worst. The only sources of light and hope in this dark and barren land are love and friendship. Without these, no mortal can survive the mockery of fate. Friendship is the best defense one has against the malevolent forces along the road. Friendship is very valuable and important . . .

Sports

Men's Soccer

The Men's Soccer Team, on the verge of building a new program, has a lot to look forward to. Twelve out of the nineteen members on the team are freshmen, bringing with them enthusiasm and some experience.

Instrumental in the rebirth of the team are the leading scorers. Carlos Somoano, a junior, plays forward. Chris Casey, a freshman, is a midfielder. Mike Corbosiero, another junior, also plays forward.

Although last year's team had three wins and eight losses, Coach Jim DiNoble explains that the team is coming together, trying to compete in a very tough conference. With the emergence of young and talented players, the men's soccer team will rise above the others who have been holding them down.

Women's Soccer

Senior Tara Hand acted as Coach/Captain for the Women's Soccer team's second year of existence at Eckerd. Sean "Slick" Blair also acted as coach. Senior Charlotte Todd also acted as captain for the "St. Pete Strikers". This year's team started its Sept.-March season with seven players from the previous year and new additions. Highlighting the season was a 4-3 home game win over the Excaliburs on parents weekend.

Men's Volleyball

Women's Volleyball

This year's Women's Volleyball Team started with bright hopes. Under the direction of Coach Nancy Roby the Lady Tritons hope to have their first winning season ever.

Playing prominent roles in the return of the team were the three co-captains, all seniors. Middle Blocker Diane Sands holds the school record in solo blocks, with 95, and received the MVP for the team last year. Eileen O'Reilly, the setter, led the team on the court by directing the plays. Cammie Maki was the hitter and a distinct force on the front line.

Coach Roby hopes to change the mindset of the students toward supporting the players to give them a winning attitude.

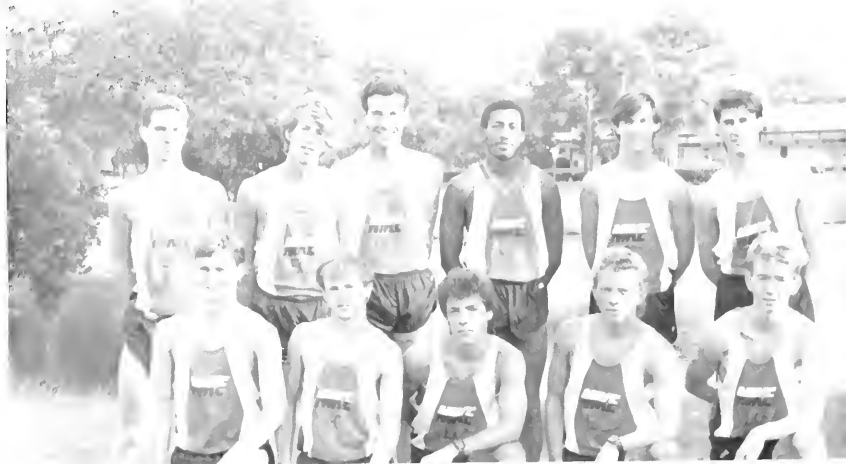

Cross Country

The Cross Country Team, regrouped in 1989 with runners from the previous year and new recruits, building one of the largest teams (13 runners) in Eckerd College's history. Scott Bransford and Sean Conklin were the number one and two runners respectively. Bransford the first runner to be sent to regional finals from Eckerd, remains the leading force on the team.

The Women's team was also the largest in recent history. Kim Fagen, ranked last year in the top 30 of Division II, was also in the top 3 of the Southeastern Regionals. Coach Wes Koenig attributes the recent rise in the team's performance to the organization of his staff, and the talent of the running teams.

Golf

The golf team had a record breaking season, thanks to member Vince Cherrix. Cherrix scored a 4-under par, 68, on the final round of the Florida Intercollegiate Championship at Doral in Miami.

Men's Basketball

The 1989-90 Triton basketball team combined a blend of experienced talent and exciting new faces this year. As a result they made it to the top of the Sunshine State Conference. All-American candidate Dwayne Perry continued to lead the team to victory throughout his senior year. Returning teammates included Perry's co-captain, Vic Stephens, and center Pat Diggs.

Optimism is the key word for the Lady Triton's 1989-90 season, and they seem to have every reason to be. Under new head coach Bob Nichols, the team will emphasize defense and rebounding through offensive improvement. Team members gained valuable experience, with nine returning from last year's team. Two transfers and two freshmen round out a Lady Triton team which could be a top contender in the Sunshine State Conference.

Baseball

The 1989 Baseball Team ranked in the top ten in Division II for the 15th year in a row, finished the season with a record of 30 wins and 19 losses, tying for 3rd in the Sunshine State Conference. The season had 80% pitching victories. The team was headed by seniors Ron Watson, Steve Gill and Jamie Brodtkorb, Eric Zylman, Tim Thielen, Shane Berry, and Jim Mecir (who went 8-3 as a freshman last year). Junior 3rd baseman Bill Norris made All-South Region and was an All-American Candidate.

Softball

The Triton Softball team is going into the 90s seeking to improve last season's record. The team was 12-18 (9-15 in conference games), with only three players graduating. Coach Di Noble is confident that capable replacements will be found. Key returning players include: first-team, all-conference selection, Coy Miller at shortstop, and Michele Lemons, who was selected to the second-team, all-conference. When this proven talent is combined with new players, an exciting season is surely on the horizon.

EC-SAR

The Eckerd College Search and Rescue Team (EC-SAR) was established in 1971 to provide safety for the watersports program. Since 1977, it has served the entire Tampa Bay Community, and has become one of the most respected search and rescue organizations on the west coast of Florida.

Water-ski

The Eckerd College Triton water-ski team has been competing in the Southern Conference since 1985. Although the Tritons could be considered a young team, they have managed to build a competitive program. In the past five years the team has captured first place in a conference tournament, and in 1989 they sent six members to the National Collegiate All-Star Tournament with one water-skier placing first overall. The Tritons are currently rated third in the Southern Conference.

Boardsailing Team

Eckerd College was the first college to develop an intercollegiate boardsailing team. The team is a strong competitor in the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Sailing Association (SAISA). In recent years, several members have placed in the top second at the intercollegiate national championships and they have also been invited to join the U.S. Boardsailing Team. A typical semester will see the team compete in four regattas with one being a host event.

Sailing Team

Under the supervision of Coach Kirsten Snellenburg, an Eckerd alumnus, the Eckerd College Sailing team looks forward to a successful season in the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Sailing Association (SAISA). Among the team's goals this year is a return to national competition and a possible berth in the National championship regatta. With the combination of talented sailors, a knowledgeable coach and Eckerd's waterfront facilities, these goals lie within their grasp. The sailing program is definitely headed for smooth seas and a bright future.

Mark Smith

The beginning of the 1990s marks the end of an era at Eckerd College. Not only do we bid farewell to the eighties, but we will also say good bye to a very special man. Mark Smith will be ending his tenure as Dean of Students on June 30, 1990. Mark came to Eckerd in 1978, and in his eleven years here has touched the lives of many students. He has helped us learn, by his example, to be competent givers. Mark will leave behind big shoes to fill, and he will be remembered as an important part of many lives. Wishing Mark well with his retirement, we know that he and Woody will remain a part of Eckerd for years to come.

George —

From the time you could stand you knew what you wanted and went after it with great determination. May your future life make you as happy as you have made us. You are a Son to be extremely proud of.

We love you much.
Mom & Dad

Thanks to the Reflections staff for all those long hard hours and all day layout sessions. It's been a great year. I never could have done it without you.

Love, the best.

Good luck to Laura and the rest of the staff in next year's book.

Congratulations Graduates!

WELCOME TO THE "A-TEAM"

Now that you're finally a graduate, you probably think that college is all behind you. Not so, Baccalaureate breath! Now you're an official member of the "A-Team"—your Alumni Association. That not only entitles you to some special privileges, but also carries some responsibilities such as letting us know where you are and what you're doing.

As an EC Alum, you're invited to be a volunteer in one of our many exciting alumni programs such as career service, admissions, reunion weekends, phonathons and more. It's a great way to be a "giver" after graduation.

Even though you'll probably be leaving the Bay area, Eckerd College will always be a part of you. And we want to know how you're doing—your goals, accomplishments, etc. Call us at (813) 864-8405 or write: Alumni Association, Eckerd College, 4200 54th Avenue South, St. Petersburg, FL 33711.

Good luck and keep in touch!

ECKERD COLLEGE

... my daughter Kelly upon graduation"

New to this world,"
Barely a child,
So many crossroads;
You entered my life.

With little to "go on"
But a guiding light,
It was always a test
To pick wrong from right.

Not enough spoken
Or said out loud.
Kindergarten through High School,
I was always proud.

Now through college,
An opportunity "I" nere had.
Don't forget . . .
To say, "thank you dad!"

The last four years
Away from the nest,
And with flying colors,
You passed the test.

So try your wings
From me and heaven above.
I wish you the best
With "ALL MY LOVE!"

Reflections Staff

As the final semester of the 1990s draws to a close, so does another successful edition of the Reflections Yearbook. The previous decade was one of reconstruction. The repercussions of these events spanned the decade, impacting the community here at Eckerd to all people around the globe. At its start bridges were constructed. Our own Sunshine Skyway was rebuilt. The end of the Eighties presented us with a different view of ourselves and the world around us. Barriers were destroyed. We all witnessed the destruction of the Berlin Wall as the decade drew to a close. Hopefully, in our own personal lives we each rebuilt bridges and tore down walls.

The Reflections Yearbook also underwent a reconstruction. The phoenix was chosen to symbolize such a rebirth, and despite the projections of others, it has been established once again. There was a struggle financially and, with a staff of only ten, at times morale was low. Were our efforts worth it? You decide. Our work now rests in your hands.

Our wish is extended to you, especially the Seniors, to make the new decade a time of your own rebirth. We gratefully thank all staff members who made another edition possible, and everyone else who encouraged and supported its publication. Without Lisa, our Senior Editor-in-Chief, This yearbook would not exist. As with her work on other publications she organized our efforts, and united our spirits. She not only deserves a big thank you . . . Lisa has earned a heartfelt goodbye. Lisa, we will remember you as a co-worker and as a friend.

The new decade holds a promise of hope and peace on its horizon.

Like the phoenix, leave behind the ashes of yesterday. Rise from today's fires and fly high into your future.
